TAXPAYERS MEETING

The Mattapoisett Taxpayers' Association held a pre-town meeting Thursday, March 1st, at the Town Hall with members and their guests in a goodly number attending. The town warrant was taken by article, each being discussed and explained to those present. Mr. Bayard Warren acted as moderator and Mr. William Spark, Jr. and associates of the Finance Committee were of great help in explaining the technicalities of any part of the articles in question. Those attending felt the evening was well spent and very informative in helping their voting at Town Meeting. Unfortunately none of the invited Selectmen attended.

FIN, FUR & FEATHER CLUB MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Mattapoisett Fin, Fur and Feather Club Inc. is now scheduled for Sunday, March 11th, at 2 P.M. Bad weather conditions have put a damper on a host of the club's activities, but as conditions improve the agenda will too, with a broad scope of outdoor sporting activities, to be discussed at the monthly confab. Prospective members are invited to attend.

COMMUNION BREAKFAST

The Holy Name Society is sponsoring a free Communion Breakfast for all the men of the parish of St. Anthony's Church, Mattapoisett on Sunday, March 11th, after the 8:00 Mass. A full course breakfast, in the church basement, will be served including ham, eggs, beans and potatoes. It is hoped that all of the men of the parish will attend.

MATTAPOISETT GRANGE MEETING

Mattapoisett Grange held its bi-monthly meeting Thursday night in the Grange Hall. The officers of Fairhaven Grange were the presiding officers and furnished the program.

The welcome was given by the master and lecturer of the host grange.

The charter was draped for the late Sisters Margaret Bauer and Grace Tilden by the chaplain Rebecca Downing and the Fairhaven Grange Ceres, assisted by the assistant stewards, Dorothy Harris and Gladys Pearson.

and Community Service Committee was given by the chairman, Marion Hatton. Much emphasis is being given to the Arthritis and Rheumatism fund, a health project being conducted by the Home and Community Service Committee of the State Grange.

Another project being conducted by the State Grange is the heifer project and supervised by the Agricultural Committee. This material was passed on to Joseph Furtado of the Subordinate Committee.

The Resolution on the death of Sister Bertha Tripp was given by Marion Hatton who was assisted by Myrtle Spagnoli and William H. Winslow on the committee.

For the lecturer's hour, Kay Hanley and her class of dancing pupils put on a very pleasing and colorful program.

The next meeting, March 15th, of Mattapoisett Grange will be an open meeting and the lecturer's "Booster Night" program. Town officials will be invited and the meeting is open to all interested people. A speaker on "The Blue Laws" will be the special feature.

Refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served by Grace Kinney, Gertrude Caswell, Ruth Shaw and Mildred LeBaron.

GRANGE OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

The 56th anniversary party for Rochester Grange, which was postponed, was enjoyed Wednesday night. Sippican Pomona officers filled the chairs, as East Freetown officers were unable to attend. Jethro Ashley, Jr., master of Sippican Pomona, took over the gavel from Rochester master, Robert Ouellette. Visiting masters who were escorted to the master's station and spoke briefly were Phyllis King of Fairhaven, Betty Cleveland of O-Ne-Set and Dexter Edgerley of Acushnet. State Deputy Joseph Bradford of Middleboro and Pomona Representative Frank Jefferson were recognized.

Invitations were received to Neighbors' Night at Marion on March 7, Overseers' Night at Smith Mills on March 9 and Neighbors' Night at Wamsutta on March 27 when each person attending will receive a cut of meat, as a butcher

St. Rose of Lima Church was given permission to use thehall on Palm Sunday to show pictures.

Joseph Bradford, assisted by Eldridge Cleveland, Norman Ouellette and Irene Jefferson, installed Miss H. Ellen Hartley as secretary.

Lottie Bradford and Alice Hartley sent notes of thanks for fruit sent while they were ill. Lecturer's march prizes were won by Robert Ouellette and Gladys Crittenden.

A three tier birthday cake, made by Mrs. Floyd H. Taylor, beautifully decorated in blue and yellow, was served with ice cream and coffee. Dining room decorations carried out the blue and yellow color scheme. Past master Maurice Fuller lit a candle for all deceased past masters. White candles were lit for all the deceased members of the Grange.

A rising vote of thanks was given Leo Carreau for his assistance with arrangements.

Following the meeting games were enjoyed by all present with the men's team winning one game and the women's team the other.

Visitors were present from Acushnet, South Middleboro, Marion, O-Ne-Set, Fairhaven, West Wareham and Wamsutta.

Dear friends,
No business or profession, we presume, escapes price criticism. The invisible "overhead" costs are so often overlooked by the critics.
You will be interested in the fact that 60% of income in the funeral directing profession is absorbed in overhead costs. Salaries, depreciation, laundry, heat, light, water, telephones, contributions, rents, repairs, supplies, insurance, car upkeep, and many other expenses drain heavily. This problem is constantly before us.
Respectfully,
Carl C Cornwell

gram were Cub Scouts dressed in the president of their choice and the audience guessed what president the boy was depicting.

Mrs. Shirley Leach's Den 4 presented three skits with the first showing Abraham Lincoln studying in front of a fireplace with Rickey Bearse portraying Lincoln. Mrs. Leach read a story about Lincoln's early boyhood while Cub Scout Bearse acted out his part. How Lincoln received the name the rail-splitter was acted out in the second skit with Cub Scout Bearse earnestly splitting rails to earn himself a yard of jean material for trousers.

The last skit put on by Den 4 was of George Washington during his youth and about his pony. Portraying Washington was Cub Scout Henry Knight; Washington's mother, Cub Scout Albert Bosworth and the two playmates, Cub Scouts Steven Leach and Henry Knight.

Mrs. Joyce Maccarone's Den 3 featured audience participation with each Cub Scout using a symbol for which a president was known for. Portrayed were presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and his dog Fala; Harry S. Truman playing the "Missouri Waltz" on the piano; Dwight D. Eisenhower golfing and John F. Kennedy playing football.

Next on the program was a game participated in by all Cub Scouts and the audience with Cubmaster William Alves reading a story in which were included the names of all the presidents. Den 2, with Mrs. Calvin R. Daggett, den mother, won the contest having written down the names of 18 presidents.

Presentation of awards highlighted the pack meeting with the following Cub Scouts receiving awards: Scott Ladd, wolf badge; A. Bosworth, wolf badge and gold arrow on wolf; S. Leach, wolf badge and gold arrow on wolf; R. Bearse, wolf badge and gold arrow on wolf; H. Knight, wolf badge and gold arrow on wolf.

Also, Victor Meservey, gold arrow on bear; Robert Phillips, gold arrow and silver arrow on bear. A newcomer to Cub Scouts, Gary Riley, was presented his bobcat pin by Cubmaster Alves with Gary's mother, Mrs. Albie Richard Gustavius was presented his bobcat pin which had not arrived in time for presentation at the last pack meeting. One year pins were presented to Cub Scouts Kenneth Daggett and Jeffery Martin; two year pins to Cub Scouts S. Leach, R. Bearse, A. Bosworth and Lloyd Vaughan. Mrs. Eunice Hayes, den mother, was presented a one year pin for service.

Mrs. Althea Lawrence, den mother, spoke briefly on the usable cannisters of Easter candy the Cub Scouts are selling with pro-- ceeds to benefit the Cub Scout treasury.

Cubmaster Alves spoke to Cub Scouts and parents on the "new demerit system" adopted unanimously by all Cub Scout personnel at the last meeting. During pack meetings there is to be no running at anytime, unless called for in a game or skit; no talking, clowning during Cub Scout ceremonies and any Cub Scout having to leave the hall is to ask permission of his den mother. A violation of any of the above rules constitutes a demerit and any Cub Scout receiving five demerits will not be allowed to attend his next den meeting. Absence from den meetings will count against a Cub Scout in regards to his attendance pin.

his pin up on the ladder of scouting.

Jean R. Masse, neighborhood commissioner, gave a short talk on the flag of the president of the United States. Mr. Masse said the flag consists of the president's seal and coat of arms in color upon a blue background with the heraldry encircled by 50 stars. Continuing, he said on executive order of October 25, 1945, the president's flag was changed by removing the four stars, one in each corner, adding one star for each state and changing the eagle in the heraldry to face the olive branch of peace, rather than the arrows of war.
